IN A FEW WORDS...

French-Belgian singer-songwriter, guitarist and producer, Mylène Chamblain has become a leading figure on the Blues-Rock / Americana scene.

Her music moves between Blues Rock, Americana, 70s Rock, Country-Folk and roots sounds blended with Pop-Rock influences, creating a free, organic sound deeply driven by live performance.

With 3 studio albums, 2 EPs and more than 10 singles receiving national airplay, Mylène has built an independent career from France and Belgium, taking her to stages across France, Belgium, England, Lithuania and the United States, including experience touring in the USA.

Since 2023, more than 10 of her singles have received regular airplay on Classic 21 – RTBF, Belgium's national radio station, which can also be picked up by French listeners several kilometres beyond the Belgian border.

Her journey includes the Visagino Country Festival, performing to an audience of 10,000, the Classic 21 Festival with K'S Choice, opening slots for Big Country and Beverly Jo Scott, with whom she has also shared other festival line-ups, as well as numerous Blues, Rock, Country and Americana stages and festivals. [...Read more page 2] Today, One Life, her latest Rock single, which has boosted her streaming audience and brought new fans into her community, opens a new chapter ahead of the release of Wild Echo, her third studio album, in autumn 2026.
